We believe that socially conscientious and empowered young urban professionals will serve as the next cadre of business, civic and community leaders in the 21st century, and that they will implement a progressive vision for the Central Indiana region.

T h a n k Y o u

Thank you for attending the November Indianapolis Urban League Young Professionals (IULYP) meeting. As an organization committed to our community, we seek to identify, cultivate and challenge the next generation of civic, government, business and non-profit leaders. We accomplish this aim through a membership program that seeks to Promote young professionals, Advocates for our community and creates Development opportunities (P.A.D.).

We appreciate the time you spent with us and the contributions you made to the gathering. In the coming weeks you will receive our community newsletter which covers how we have executed our P.A.D. strategy for the month.

If you are interested in learning more about The Exchange please feel free to reach out to Adrienne Slash, VP of Membership at adriannelslash@aol.com.

Thanks,
IULYP
